Participation and Attendance Policy

Please refer to your instructor's syllabus for information about this policy.

Inclement Weather Information

Students will receive notification of late-starts and class cancellations due to inclement weather via the SUNS Alert app. Classes scheduled to meet face-to-face will not meet, but if practical will meet remotely via Zoom. Online classes will be held as usual. Hybrid classes and classes with Zoom options will meet on Zoom.

Other Classroom Policies and Expectations

College Expectations:

Please be advised that all students, including dual credit students and early college high school students, are subject to the same policies and standards regarding submission of late work, participation, conduct, and academic honesty as outlined in this syllabus. By enrolling in this SJC course, students understand that complex subject matter may be covered and that course content may be intellectually and emotionally challenging.

In complying with FERPA, I cannot and will not discuss any matters regarding any student's performance or standing in this class with friends, parents or family members. A FERPA waiver entitles your parents/guardians access to your grade records, which they can access through Canvas with your help. All students are encouraged to contact me whenever they have questions or concerns about this class. Students should practice self-advocacy as part of the college experience. It is an important step to becoming an independent and responsible person. It also helps strengthen the student/instructor relationship and the classroom community. As a result of the concerns for student autonomy and to avoid potential liability, I will not conference with parents or guardians regarding this class. I am, however, always happy to meet with students.

Please customize your own policy to be sure all students are supported. The ideas below are options and suggestions.

Campus Support for Students: There are many campus resources that can be part of your success in this class.

- Students are required to take drafts of their papers to tutoring (either at the Student Success Center, through BrainFuse, or by taking advantage of one of the other campus tutoring resources) before submitting essays.
- Before submitting essays for grading, students must either conference with me or take drafts of their papers to tutoring (either at the Student Success Center, through Brainfuse, or by taking advantage of one of the other campus tutoring resources).

Faculty – Student Relationships: Because our relationship can be an important part of your success in this class, there are many opportunities to conference with me (in person or by phone) by appointment or during office hours:

- We will/may schedule a conference just after class begins to get to know each other and discuss your writing goals for the semester based on your first week writing sample.
- We will/may schedule a conference just after your first essay to discuss your strengths and areas for growth in your writing.
- If by midterm your grade is below 75%, I will reach out to you to schedule a conference to help you get on the right track.
- If you miss an assignment, you may make that assignment up for credit if you conference with me.
- If you would like to revise an essay for an improved grade, you may do so if you conference with me about that essay.
- Faculty feel free to insert other policies here regarding conferencing and the faculty-student relationship.
- Please feel free to reach out to me however works for you if you ever have questions or need help - come to office hours, text or call me with questions (if I am with family I may get back to you the next day), or message me through Canvas.

San Juan College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national origin, disability, age, genetic, veteran's status, or on the basis of any other category protected under federal, state and local laws. If you have experienced sexual harassment, sexual assault, or any other form of protected class discrimination, we encourage you to make a report. If you report to a faculty member, she/he/they are obligated by policy to share knowledge, notice, and/or reports of harassment, discrimination, and/or retaliation with the Title IX Coordinator. These disclosures include but are not limited to reports of sexual assault, dating/domestic violence, and stalking. You may also make a confidential report to a SJC Counselor. Please refer to San Juan College's Title IX site for further details.

7. Drop for Non-Attendance and/or Non-Participation

Class Attendance and Participation Expectation:

Face-to-Face -- Students are expected to attend and participate in class regularly. Any student missing more than 10% of consecutive class time, (For example, in a regular 15-week class that meets twice a week, this equates to the student missing 3 consecutive classes) without consultation with the instructor may be considered as having abandoned the course.

On-line -- Students are expected to participate regularly and submit all course assignments, based on the course guide definition. A student who does not submit any assignments during a consecutive 10% of the course (1.5 weeks of a 15-week semester) without consulting the instructor, may be considered as having abandoned the course. Logging in does not meet the attendance standard.

Competency-Based Education Classes -- Students are expected to have regular and substantive interactions with their instructor and to actively work on course content. A student who has not submitted coursework, nor had substantive interactions with the instructor over a consecutive 10% of the term, without the instructor's prior approval, will be considered to have abandoned the competency progression. Last date of attendance will be recorded as the last date that coursework was submitted or that the student met with the instructor. For on-line learners, logging in does not meet the attendance standard.

Failure to Meet Class Participation Expectation:

Students who fail to meet participation expectations will have their last date of attendance recorded. This date will be used to recalculate any financial aid received/veteran's benefits received, and the student may be required to repay the institution/government. If the student does not drop the course, an 'X' grade will be recorded. An 'X' grade impacts the grade point average the same as an 'F'.

8. Grading Policies

Incomplete: Incomplete Grade Assignment (Incomplete Grades Information)

The grade of I (Incomplete) is given for passing work that could not be completed during the semester because of circumstances beyond the student's control. Ordinarily, the assignment of an I is given by the course instructor at the time final grades are due.

In no case is an I grade to be used to avoid assignment of D or F grades for marginal or failing work or to require a student to enroll in the class the next semester because work was not completed on time. Circumstances warranting the issuance of an I grade must be beyond the student's control and must be documented on the appropriate form prior to approval.

I grades can be removed only during the subsequent 16 weeks from the end of term, or within the time limit set by the instructor. Removal of an I is accomplished by completing the work in a manner acceptable to the instructor. Re-enrollment in the course under the repeat option does not remove the prior grade of I. Students should not re-enroll for the course. An I not made up within 16 weeks or within the time limit set by the instructor will change to an F grade thereafter and cannot be changed by work completion.

9. Grade Appeals

The policy for grade appeals is in the Academic Catalog (Grade Appeal Policy).
