Required Texts and/or Materials

This course includes an inclusive access etextbook in McGraw-Hill Connect or Cengage MindTap.

Required Technology and Software

- Canvas
- Chrome, Safari, or Firefox

Course Requirements

In this class, you will:

1. Engage with course material through regular reading and through writing, such as reports and presentations.
2. Participate in peer-to-peer interactions (e.g., discussions), allowing you to exercise critical reasoning, reflection, and communication skills while engaging with multiple perspectives.
3. Check understanding through formal assessments (chapter quizzes and/or exams).
4. Apply course concepts to "real world" contexts through various "Application Activities."

Unless otherwise noted, any electronic documents submitted must be compatible with PC operating systems (e.g., .doc, .docx, .pdf, etc.). Please do NOT submit .pages or .key files. Check with individual instructors regarding Google Drive files (e.g., Google sheets, docs, or slides).

Please note: Specific learning activities and expectations vary by instructor and course format. Please consult with your individual instructor for further details.

Other Classroom Policies and Expectations

You are rising professionals with valuable contributions to share with this class. This is a space to explore, grown, and challenge ideas and understandings. To facilitate this, please: "show up" and be prepared; evaluate ideas and multiple perspectives (including your own) critically; be respectful toward and considerate of each other (even in moments of disagreement); be responsible scholars (please review and abide by the college academic honesty policy); and actively participate in the learning process.

Specific policies regarding classroom/online participation, late work, extra credit, etc. vary by instructor and course format. Please consult individual course syllabi for further details.

Grading

Final grades are calculated based on course activities and assessments and vary by instructor. Please consult individual course syllabi for details.

Letter grades are based on the following percentages:

Letter Grade	Percentage
A	100.0 - 90%
B	89.99 - 80%
C	79.99 - 70%
D	69.99 - 60%
F	59.99 - 0%

Course Time Commitment

You should expect to spend considerable time reading and studying as well as completing assignments each week. The standard for 16 week courses is 6-9 hours outside of class for a 3-credit face to face course and 9-12 hours per week for online courses. (Double the time per week for 8 week courses.)

Please consult individual course syllabi for specific expectations.

Canvas Participation and Expectations

As noted, your consistent participation is critical for your success. Plan to log in to Canvas regularly.

Specific Canvas policies and expectations vary by instructor and course format. Please consult individual course syllabi for further details.

Participation and Attendance Policy

Consistent participation is linked to academic success; therefore, it is in your best interest to participate regularly throughout the semester and stay in communication with your instructor.

Specific participation and attendance policies vary by instructor and course format. Please consult individual course syllabi for further details.

Instructor Response Times & Regular Interaction Expectations

You can expect to receive a reply to emails/Canvas messages within 24 hours during the week and on the first work day following a weekend or holiday.

Student Hours are offered on a regular schedule each week (in person or via Zoom) and you may also schedule appointments, if those set times don't work.

You can expect manually graded assignments to be graded and scores posted within a week of the unit/assignment deadline.

Online classes can expect weekly messages or announcements via Canvas. Feedback will be provided directly on your exams, discussions, and writing assignments, as appropriate for that assignment.

Specific communication preferences and policies vary by instructor. Please consult individual course syllabi for further details.

Healthy and Safe Practices for Being on Campus

We want a healthy and safe campus for students, faculty, staff, and guests.

Contagious diseases and your responsibility:

If you have COVID-19 symptoms, fever, flu or even the common cold, you should stay home. Do not come to campus if you are feeling sick. Contact your instructor about missing class (and review your instructor's policies on missed or late work). Being sick does not necessarily excuse you from completing your work on time.

Safety on campus and your responsibility:

If you are on campus and experience or witness an emergency, call 9-1-1 first and then the Department of Public Safety at 505-566-3333 (or just 3333 if calling from a campus phone).

When you are on campus, be aware of your surroundings. If you need an escort to your vehicle, call 505-566-4444 (DPS non-emergency line) or 505-215-3091 (officer on duty line).

The College will send information for campus emergencies through SJC AlertAware, email and the webpage. Stay informed and stay safe.

Inclement Weather Information

Students will receive notification of class delays and cancellations due to inclement weather via the SJC AlertAware and SJC student email. Face-to-face classes will not meet in person; however, students are advised to check with instructors about alternative meeting options, as some may choose to meet via zoom. Hybrid classes will meet as scheduled via zoom. For questions regarding your class delay or cancelation, please contact your instructor.

Online Course Fee

Online Courses - San Juan College requires all online courses to include some form of assessment to demonstrate the mastery of course objectives. This could include exams, capstone projects, e-portfolios, presentations, final papers or other appropriate assessments. The use of a proctoring platform, plagiarism detection software or other method to ensure that assessments are completed by the enrolled student is required.

A course fee of $5.00 is assessed for all online courses at San Juan College to cover the cost of the above services. Students who are required to take a proctored exam and choose to use a physical testing center outside the SJC Testing Center or SJC Disability Services will be responsible for the cost of using that center.
